Baytowne Wharf Convention Center - Destin, Florida

The grain markets have collapsed. Where will the next opportunities be? Join many other farmers from your state at our in depth marketing conference to be held July 22-23 in Destin, Florida*.

We will discuss marketing strategies from this point forward for corn, soybeans, wheat, cotton and rice and you will hear outstanding speakers on the future of farmland values, the impact of the new farm bill, the weather outlook from one of the top climatologists in the world as well as new technologies for forecasting yields and revenues.

Not only that, but on the last day we have optional fishing excursions and dolphin watches available for you and your family. How much better does it get than to be able to write off a family vacation as a business expense? Seats are now limited.

Call us at 800-558-3431 for more details.
